[7] Execution Case No. 1 of 2023 was launched by the award holder inter alia by resorting to Section 36 of 'The Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996(26 of 1996)' (hereinafter 'A&C Act' for the sake of brevity) qua execution of an Arbitral Award dated 12.01.2023. This execution case is dated 14.09.2023 and it was taken on file as Execution Case No. 1 of 2023 by the said Court. Thereafter, pending Execution Case No. 1 of 2023, afore-referred 02.12.2025 notification superseded 19.08.2021 notification and came into force on coming into force of 02.12.2025 notification, by virtue of sub-Section

(2) of Section 15 of Commercial Courts Act, Execution Case No. 1 of 2023 stood transferred to the Commercial Court. To be noted, said Court is a designated Commercial Court and therefore for all practical purposes the Court is same but it was before same Court functioning as Commercial Court. Thereafter, State took out Judl. Misc. (Execution) Case No. 41 of 2026 dated 30.05.2026 and impugned order was made in this Judl. Misc. Case. In any event, on the date of filing of this Judl. Miscellaneous Case by State i.e., 30.05.2026, 02.12.2025 notification had kicked in main Execution case stood transferred to Commercial Court vide Section 15(2) of Commercial Courts Act and therefore, State filed the Judl. Miscellaneous Case only in the Commercial Court. To put it in a nutshell, whichever way the matter is looked at, the impugned order has been made by a Commercial Court. Learned senior counsel on both sides have no disputation, disagreement or contestation on this point.

[8] Before concluding, for the sake of clarity in matters that may come up in future, this Court deems it appropriate to record that as regards this High Court, a notification being notification dated 23.08.2021 bearing reference No. HCM/CA-PC/2021-RG/: 93433 was operating and scanned reproduction of the same is as follows:
