HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AVNEESH JHINGAN

AVNEESH JHINGAN, J. (ORAL)

O.M.P. (COMM) 135/2023

1. This petition is filed under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (for short 'the Act') against the arbitral award dated 22.11.2022 (for brevity 'impugned award').
2. The issue is whether the appointment of the sole arbitrator is unilateral and in violation of amended Section 12(5) of the Act.
3. The brief facts are that the Government of NCT of Delhi/respondent issued a Notice Inviting Tender (NIT) for construction of a residential complex for Judicial Staff Quarters at Sector-19, Dwarka, New Delhi. The petitioner was the successful bidder and was issued a Letter of Acceptance (LOA) dated 24.09.2014. The parties executed the contract bearing No. 01/EE/B-131/2014-2015. Disputes arose between the parties inter alia, regarding the amount due, delay and implementation of the contract. Clause 25 of the General Conditions of Contract (for short 'GCC') provides for resolution of disputes through arbitration. Relevant portion of Clause 25 of the GCC is reproduced below:-

"...disputes or difference shall be referred for adjudication through arbitration by a sole arbitrator appointed by the Chief Engineer, CPWD, in charge of the work."

3.1 The arbitration was invoked at the instance of the petitioner by issuance of notice dated 28.12.2018. The arbitrator was appointed by the respondent on 08.01.2019. The proceedings culminated in the impugned award and has been challenged by both parties by filing petitions under Section 34 of the Act.

4. Learned counsel for the respondent raises a preliminary objection that the appointment of the arbitrator was void ab initio being violative of Section 12(5) of the Act and consequently the award is a nullity.

5. Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that there was an express waiver by the parties and the rigours of Section 12(5) of the Act are not applicable. Reliance is placed on the decision of the Supreme Court in Bhadra International (India) Pvt. Ltd. & Ors. v. Airports Authority of India, 2026 INSC 6 to contend that where a party aware of the rights under Section 12(5) of the Act subsequent to dispute having arisen requests for appointment of an arbitrator, it amounts to a waiver under the proviso to Section 12(5) of the Act.

5.1 The submission is that the language of the notice dated 28.12.2018 is clear that the petitioner was aware of the amended Section 12(5) of the Act and the rights accruing thereunder but requested for appointment of an independent arbitrator. It is submitted that the proceedings were attended by both parties without raising objection to appointment of the arbitrator.

6. In rebuttal, learned counsel for the respondent contends that there was no express waiver in writing by either of the parties. The submission is that the appointment of an arbitrator or participation in the arbitration proceedings cannot be construed as a waiver under the proviso to Section 12(5) of the Act.

7. Before proceeding further, it would be apposite to quote the following decisions:

7.1 The Supreme Court in Bhadra International (supra) dealt with the following three issues:

“29....i. Whether the sole arbitrator could be said to have become “ineligible to be appointed as an arbitrator” by virtue of sub-section (5) of Section 12 of the Act, 1996?

ii. Whether the parties could be said to have waived the applicability of sub-section (5) of Section 12 of the Act, 1996, by way of their conduct, either expressed or implied?

iii. Whether the appellants could have raised an objection to the appointment of the sole arbitrator for the first time in an application under Section 34 of the Act, 1996?”

Held:

“123...i. The principle of equal treatment of parties provided in Section 18 of the Act, 1996, applies not only to the arbitral proceedings but also to the procedure for appointment of arbitrators. Equal treatment of the parties entails that the parties must have an equal say in the constitution of the arbitral tribunal.

ii. Sub-section (5) of Section 12 provides that any person whose relationship with the parties or counsel, or the dispute, whether direct or indirect, falls within any of the categories specified in the Seventh Schedule would be ineligible to be appointed as an arbitrator. Since, the ineligibility stems from the operation of law, not only is a person having an interest in the dispute or its outcome ineligible to act as an arbitrator, but appointment by such a person would be ex facie invalid.

iii. The words “an express agreement in writing” in the proviso to Section 12(5) means that the right to object to the appointment of an ineligible arbitrator cannot be taken away by mere implication. The agreement referred to in the proviso must be a clear, unequivocal written agreement.

iv. When an arbitrator is found to be ineligible by virtue of Section 12(5) read with the Seventh Schedule, his mandate is automatically terminated. In such circumstance, an aggrieved party may approach the court under Section 14 read with Section 15 for appointment of a substitute arbitrator. Whereas, when an award has been passed by such an arbitrator, an aggrieved party may approach the court under Section 34 for setting aside the award.

v. In arbitration, the parties vest jurisdiction in the tribunal by exercising their consent in furtherance of a valid arbitration agreement. An arbitrator who lacks jurisdiction cannot make an award on the merits. Hence, an objection to the inherent lack of jurisdiction can be taken at any stage of the proceedings.”

7.2 The Division Bench of this court in Mahavir Prasad Gupta and Sons v. Govt. of NCT of Delhi, 2025 SCC OnLine Del 4241 dealt with the following issues:

“74...a) When a party itself has unilaterally appointed the arbitrator, whether that party can object to the unilateral appointment of the arbitrator at any stage during or after the arbitration proceedings?

b) If a party has unilaterally appointed an arbitrator, can that party be deemed to have given express waiver in writing under Section 12(5) of the Act while making the appointment itself?”

The court concluded:

“84....a) Mandatory Requirement: Any arbitration agreement providing unilateral appointment of the sole or presiding arbitrator is invalid. A unilateral appointment by any party in the arbitrations seated in India is strictly prohibited and considered as null and void since its very inception. Resultantly, any proceedings conducted before such unilaterally appointed Arbitral Tribunal are also nullity and cannot result into an enforceable award being against Public Policy of India and can be set aside under Section 34 of the Act and/or refused to be enforced under Section 36 of the Act.

b) Deemed Waiver: The proviso to Section 12(5) of the Act requires an express agreement in writing. The conduct of the parties, no matter how acquiescent or conducive, is inconsequential and cannot constitute a valid waiver under the proviso to Section 12(5) of the Act. The ineligibility of a unilaterally appointed arbitrator can be waived only by an express agreement in writing between the parties after the dispute has arisen between them. Section 12(5) of the Act is an exception to Section 4 of the Act as there is no deemed waiver under Section 4 of the Act for unilateral appointment by conduct of participation in the proceedings. The proviso to Section 12(5) of the Act requires an 'express agreement in writing' and deemed waiver under Section 4 of the Act will not be applicable to the proviso to Section 12(5) of the Act.

c) Award by an Ineligible Arbitrator is a Nullity: An award passed by a unilaterally appointed arbitrator is a nullity as the ineligibility goes to the root of the jurisdiction. Hence, the award can be set aside under Section 34(2)(b) of the Act by the Court on its own if it 'finds that' an award is passed by unilaterally appointed arbitrator without even raising such objection by either party.

d) Stage of Challenge: An objection to the lack of inherent jurisdiction of an arbitrator can be taken at any stage during or after the arbitration proceedings including by a party who has appointed the sole or presiding arbitrator unilaterally as the act of appointment is not an express waiver of the ineligibility under proviso to Section 12(5) of the Act. Such objection can be taken even at stage of challenge to the award under Section 34 of the Act or during the enforcement proceedings under Section 36 of the Act."

8. After amendment of Section 12(5) of the Act an employee of a party in dispute can neither be appointed arbitrator nor can nominate or appoint any other person as an arbitrator. The unilateral appointment in absence of an express agreement in writing between the parties to waive applicability of Section 12(5) of the Act is void ab initio. The filing of the statement of claim or participation in the arbitral proceedings cannot be construed as waiver under the proviso to Section 12(5) of the Act. The unilateral appointment of the arbitrator can be objected to for the first time under Section 34 of the Act.

9. In view of the law laid down by the Supreme Court in Bhadra International (supra) and the decision of this Court in Mahavir Prasad Gupta (supra) the appointment of the arbitrator is in violation of the amended provisions of Section 12(5) of the Act.

10. The issue now to be determined is as to whether after the dispute arose was there an express waiver in writing by the parties that the provisions of Section 12(5) of the Act shall not apply.

11. In the notice served by the petitioner under Section 21 of the Act, a specific objection was raised against the appointment of an employee of the respondent as an arbitrator and no express waiver of rigours of Section 12(5) of the Act was given.

12. The Supreme Court in Bhadra International (India) Pvt. Ltd (supra) held that waiver involves a conscious decision to abandon the existing legal right and can be made only by a person fully aware of such right. A legal right cannot be taken away by implications. The waiver has to be an unequivocal expression and it cannot be lost sight of that by such waiver the restriction imposed by Section 12(5) of the Act is sought to be overcome.

13. There is no prescribed format under the proviso to Section 12(5) of the Act for an express agreement in writing but it shall not mean that the waiver can be inferred by implication or through conduct. It would be relevant to quote the following paragraph from Bhadra International (India) Pvt. Ltd. (supra):

“84. Undoubtedly, the statute does not prescribe a format for the agreement. However, the absence of a prescribed format cannot be construed to mean that the waiver may be inferred impliedly or through conduct. We say so because the legislature has consciously prefaced the term “agreement” with the word “express” and followed it with the phrase “in writing”. This semantics denote the intention of the legislature that the waiver under the proviso to Section 12(5) must be made only through an express and written manifestation of intention.”

14. The matter needs to be considered from another angle. The express consent in writing under proviso to Section 12(5) of the Act has to be of both the parties. It is not a case set up by the petitioner that the respondent consented for waiver of applicability of Section 12(5) of the Act. The waiver has to be expressed and cannot be construed or inferred through conduct. The Division Bench of this court in Mahavir Prasad Gupta and Sons (supra) held that an appointment of an ineligible person as an arbitrator is void ab-initio and can be challenged by the party making such appointment. The relevant paragraphs of the judgment are:

“81. Accordingly, the party that unilaterally appointed the arbitrator cannot be deemed to have agreed in writing to waive the ineligibility of the arbitrator by act of appointment. When appointment itself is ineligible under the provisions of Section 12(5) of the Act read with Seventh Schedule of the Act, it does not take away the right of the party to challenge such an appointment merely because that party had made the appointment in absence of express agreement in writing between the parties to waive the applicability of Section 12(5) of the Act.

82. Hence, a party which unilaterally appointed the arbitrator has right to object to such appointment irrespective of fact that that party itself made the appointment of the arbitrator. Mere fact of making appointment in writing will not make the ineligible appointment a valid appointment unless there is express agreement in writing waiving such ineligibility.

83. Although it appears disingenuous, a party appointing an the sole or presiding arbitrator unilaterally can challenge the award on the ground that the award has been rendered in contravention of Section 12(5) of the Act read with Seventh Schedule of the Act notwithstanding that the said party itself made such an appointment. When the Arbitral Tribunal inherently lacked jurisdiction to act, the arbitration proceedings are void ab initio, rendering the award unenforceable irrespective of which party made such unilateral appointment. The arbitral proceedings and an award made by an unilaterally appointed sole or presiding arbitrator, who is de jure ineligible to be appointed as an arbitrator by virtue of the Seventh Schedule of the Act are void ab initio. The waiver under the proviso to Section 12(5) of the Act must be express and subsequent to the disputes having been arisen between the parties. Hence, the party which appointed the sole or presiding arbitrator unilaterally can also challenge the award under Section 34 of the Act on the ground of such ineligibility.”

15. In the absence of compliance of proviso to Section 12(5) of the Act by the parties, the appointment of the arbitrator by the respondent is in violation of Section 12(5) read with Seventh Schedule of the Act. The appointment of the arbitrator is void ab initio and renders the impugned award nullity.

16. The petition is allowed and the impugned award is set aside.
