ORDER

The present Application has been filed by Bhagwati Lacto Vegetarian Exports Pvt. Ltd., the Respondent/Corporate Debtor in CP (IB) No. 263/Chd/Pb/2023, under Section 60(5) of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016, read with Rule 11 of the National Company Law Tribunal Rules, 2016, seeking rejection of the Rejoinder dated 20.11.2024 filed by the Petitioner in the main petition, along with the annexures/documents accompanying the said Rejoinder, and their removal from the record.

BRIEF FACTS

2. The Brief facts as stated by the Applicant are summarised as follows:

(i) The Applicant states that it filed its Reply to the main petition on 30.04.2024, raising several objections to the Petitioner's claim, including that the ledger accounts annexed by the Petitioner were incomplete and unreliable, that no supplies were in fact made to the Applicant, that the invoices showed a different consignee, viz. "NV Distilleries and Breweries Pvt. Ltd.", that no purchase orders were annexed, and that there was an inconsistency between the date of default pleaded and the Bank Certificate filed as Annexure A-9.

(ii) It is stated that the Petitioner was granted an opportunity to file a Rejoinder, which was filed on 20.11.2024 and taken on record by this Tribunal vide order dated 25.03.2025. The Applicant contends that the said Rejoinder, in substance, is an attempt to rectify the defects pointed out in the Reply rather than a bona fide rejoinder, and that it introduces fresh annexures (A-16 to A-19) and fresh factual assertions including a "transit sale" theory involving "Param Wine" and reconciliation of TDS entries none of which formed part of the original petition.

(iii) Relying on Ajanta Enterprises v. Bimla Charan Chatterjee (Raj. HC, 1987), Gurjant Singh v. Krishan Chander (Raj. HC, 2000), Sawani Singh Sodha v. State of Rajasthan (2022), Anant Constructions (P) Ltd. v. Ram Niwas (Del. HC, 1994) as affirmed in Noorul Hassan v. Nahakpam Indrajit Singh, (2024) 9 SCC 353, and Magnum Sea Foods Ltd. v. Ashadeep Aquaculture (P) Ltd. (NCLT, Cuttack Bench), the Applicant submits that a rejoinder cannot be used to introduce a new case or cure defects in the original pleading, that no such leave ought to have been granted, and that permitting the Rejoinder to remain on record would violate the principles of natural justice and cause grave prejudice to the Applicant.

ANALYSIS AND FINDINGS

3. We have heard the Learned counsel for both the parties and perused the material available on record carefully.
4. The Applicant, in its Reply filed on 30.04.2024, raised objections regarding the ledger accounts, absence of purchase orders and proof of supplies, invoices reflecting a different consignee, and inconsistency in the date of default. It is further alleged that the Rejoinder filed on 20.11.2024, and taken on record on 25.03.2025, introduces fresh documents and assertions, including the transit-sale theory and TDS reconciliation. In our considered view, these objections appear to concern the evidentiary worth and effect of the material placed on record and are matters more appropriately examined at the stage of hearing and adjudication of the Company Petition.
5. The judgments relied upon by the Applicant arise in the context of civil suits governed by the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, and examine the scope of a "replication" within that specific pleading framework of plaint, written statement, and replication. This Tribunal, while exercising jurisdiction under the IBC, is not strictly bound by the CPC; its procedure is governed by Rule 11 of the NCLT Rules, 2016, which confers wide latitude to pass such orders as may be necessary for meeting the ends of justice. The rationale of the cited judgments, in our opinion, cannot be applied to the present proceedings

6. It is also relevant that the Rejoinder in question has already been taken on record by this Tribunal vide order dated 25.03.2025, and the present application, in effect, seeks a reconsideration of that order without demonstrating any error apparent or exceptional circumstance warranting such a course. Further, the material sought to be excised, being ledger reconciliations, TDS records, and delivery acknowledgments, bears directly upon the question of debt and default that lies at the heart of the main petition, and its exclusion at this preliminary stage, without an examination on the merits, would not serve the interest of a complete and fair adjudication.

7. In view of the foregoing, the objections raised by the Applicant are left open to be considered at the stage of hearing and adjudication of CP (IB) No. 263/Chd/Pb/2023. However, to avoid any prejudice to the Applicant arising from the additional documents and explanations introduced through the Rejoinder, the Corporate Debtor is granted two weeks to file a Sur-Rejoinder/Reply to the Rejoinder in the main Petition.

8. Accordingly, IA (I.B.C) No. 1062/2025 is disposed of in the above terms.
